

Thank you for registering to attend the Pepperl+Fuchs 2-day Training Course May 20-21, 2025 at our Distribution Center in Katy, Texas!

P+F Factory Automation Division channel, support, and product management groups will present on new technology, applications, and industrial automation topics that are vital to channel sales teams in an evolving marketplace. This training will be technical sales and FAE focused, so if you do not have at least a basic understanding of P+F products, we highly encourage our Online Basic Training Course prior to attending.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Classes will run both days 8:30 – 4:00. Please arrive the day/night of May 19th.
